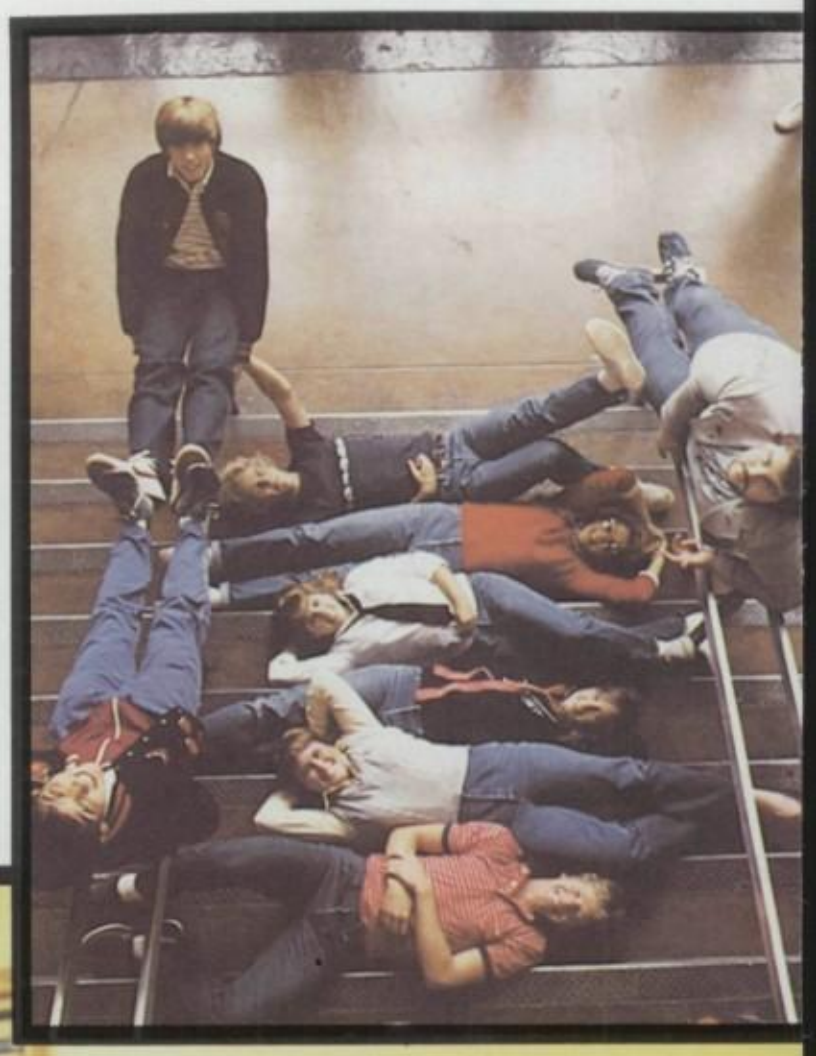
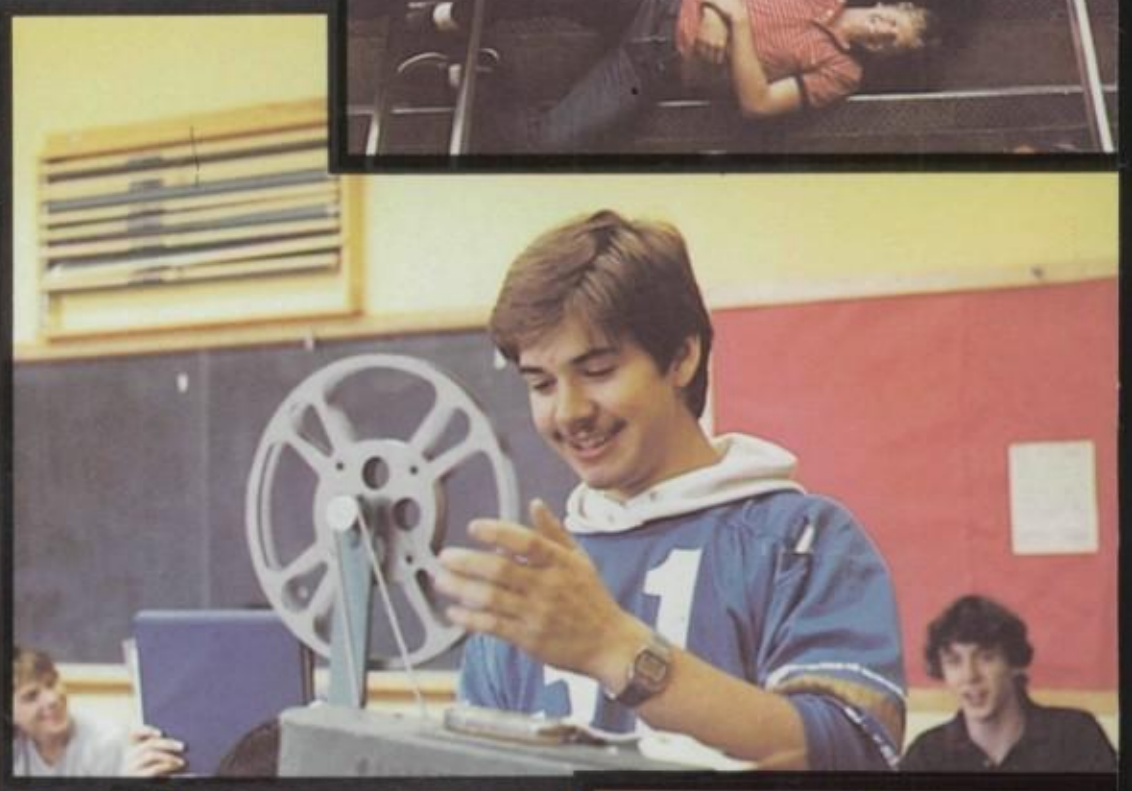
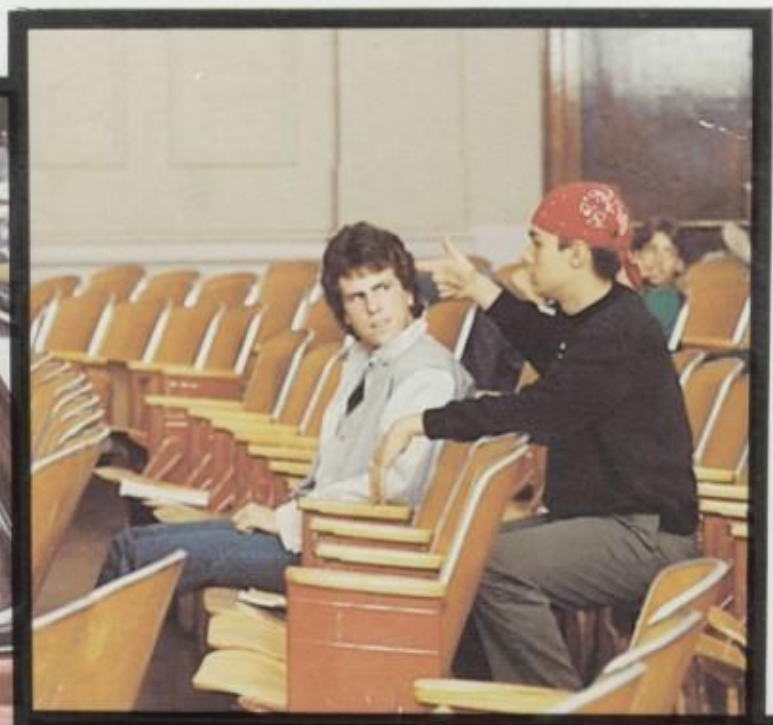
Photo Essay

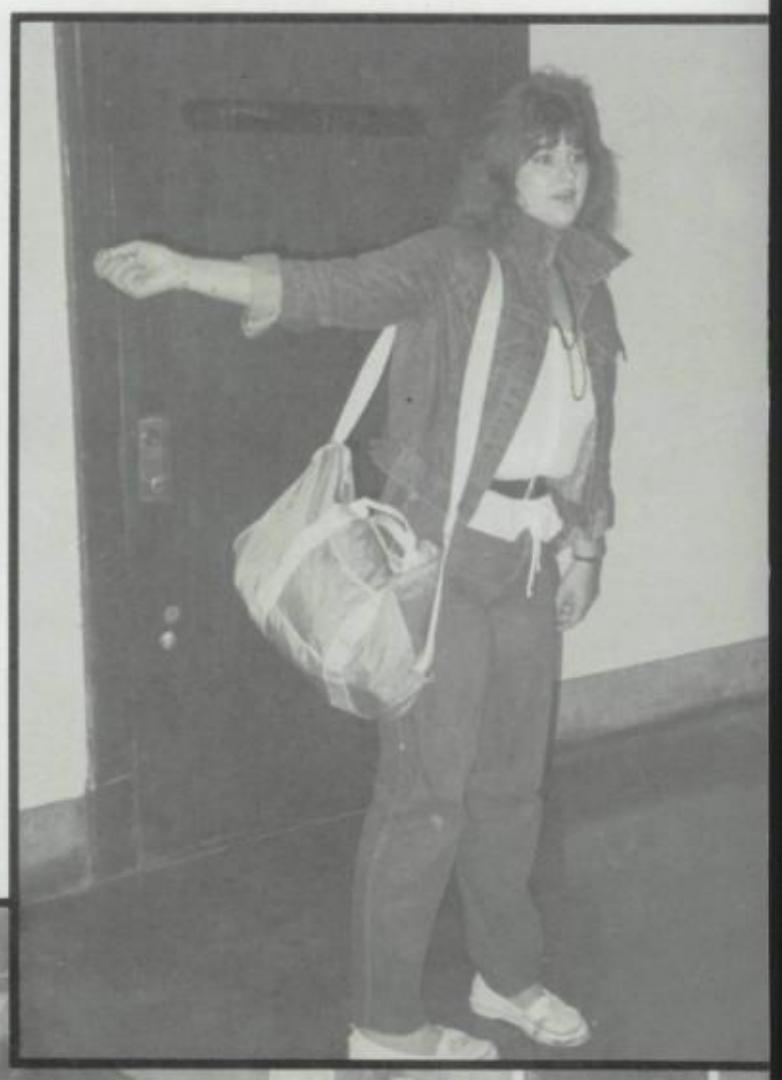


REMEMBER THE TIMES WE HAVE SHARED
FOR SOON WE WILL SEPARATE
GOING WHERE OUR FUTURES LEAD US

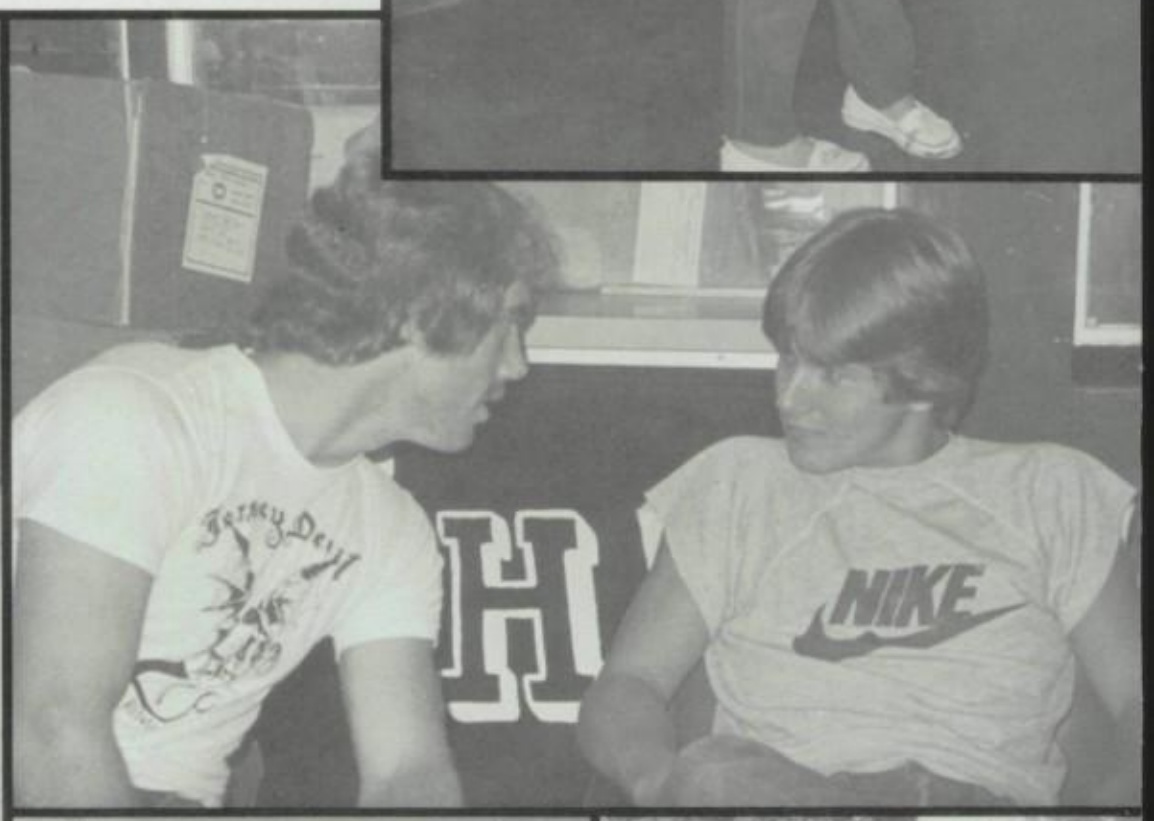




OUR WORLD'S OPPORTUNITIES
WILL DRIVE US FURTHER APART
THE STREETS OF LIFE ARE EVER TURNING



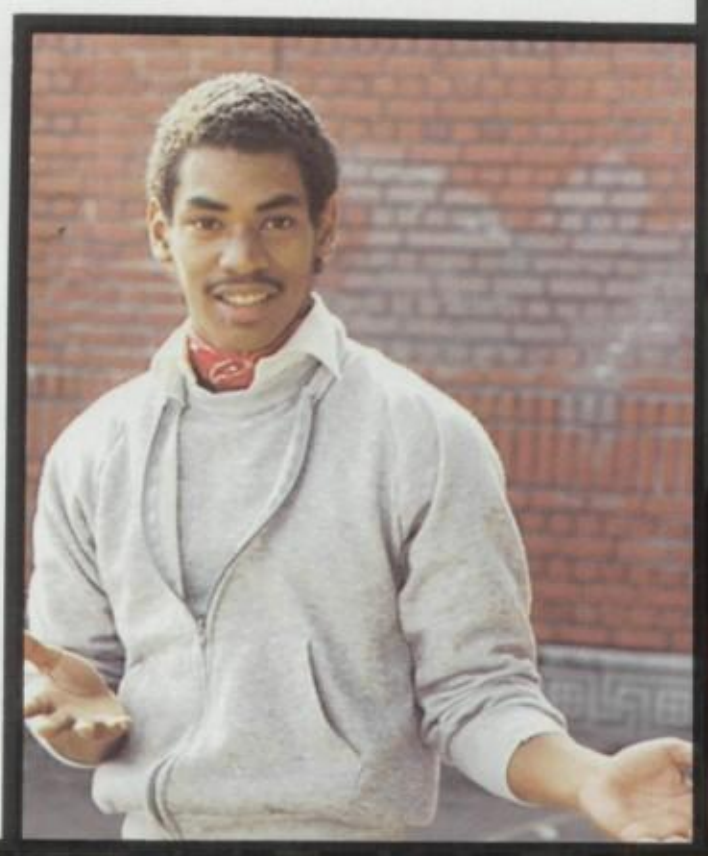
BUT DISTANCE CAN NOT SEPARATE
THE BOND BETWEEN SPECIAL FRIENDSHIPS
OUR LOVE WILL NOT BE LOST

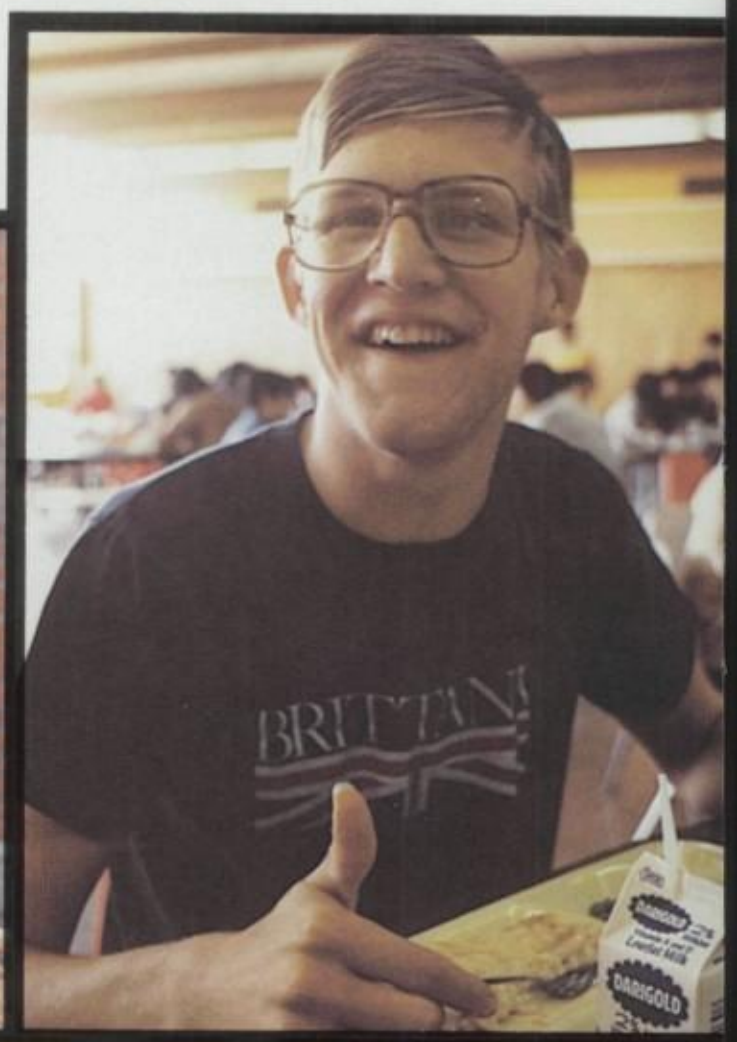


NO MATTER HOW FAR WE TRAVEL
THE MEMORIES IN OUR HEARTS
WILL ALWAYS REMAIN

Photo Essay

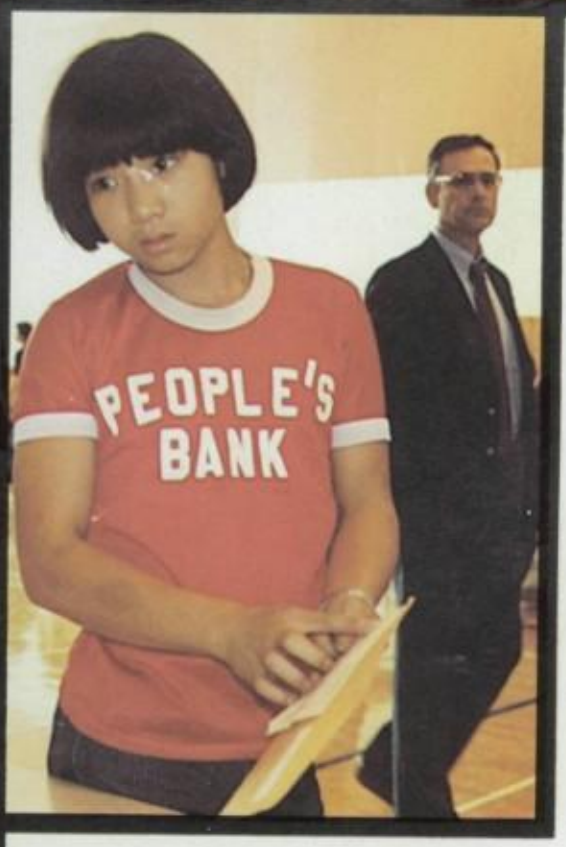
ALL OF THOSE TIMES
WE'VE HAD,
SO MANY PEOPLE
LOVED SO DEARLY,





ALL TRAVELING
SEPARATE WAYS.

NO MATTER WHERE WE ARE, THAT SPECIAL BOND OF TOGETHERNESS,



HERE WE WILL ALWAYS BE.

Senior Cabinet

The Senior Cabinet was composed of a small number of hard working students, who sacrificed their time for the senior class.

They worked on several events such as powderpuff football, the all school carnival, balloon sales and distributions of phone book inserts.

As well as working on fund raisers, they worked on traditional projects, such as the senior breakfast, senior trip, and the senior prom.

Fall Homecoming

The tradition of Homecoming at Ballard proved that spirit really came alive in 1983. Spirit week started off with Monday, Hawaiian Day; Tuesday, Dress up Day; Wednesday, Hairdo Day; Thursday, Sports Day. Friday was Red and Black Day, the assembly, and the football game against Nathan Hale.

Football Has A Trying Season

With the help of a tireless staff, headed by Coach Cliff Townsend the Varsity Football team did fair in a rebuilding season. The team lacked size, but gave up nothing in heart. The idea to never give up was instilled in the players minds from day "one." The highlight of the year was in the team's last game, which they won 9-6. The scoring came in a touchdown from Chad "43" Rogers and a field goal from Eirik "10" Olsen. Varsity captains were Don "92" Kriley and Dean "44" Olsby. Scott "46" Ericson was voted Most Inspirational.

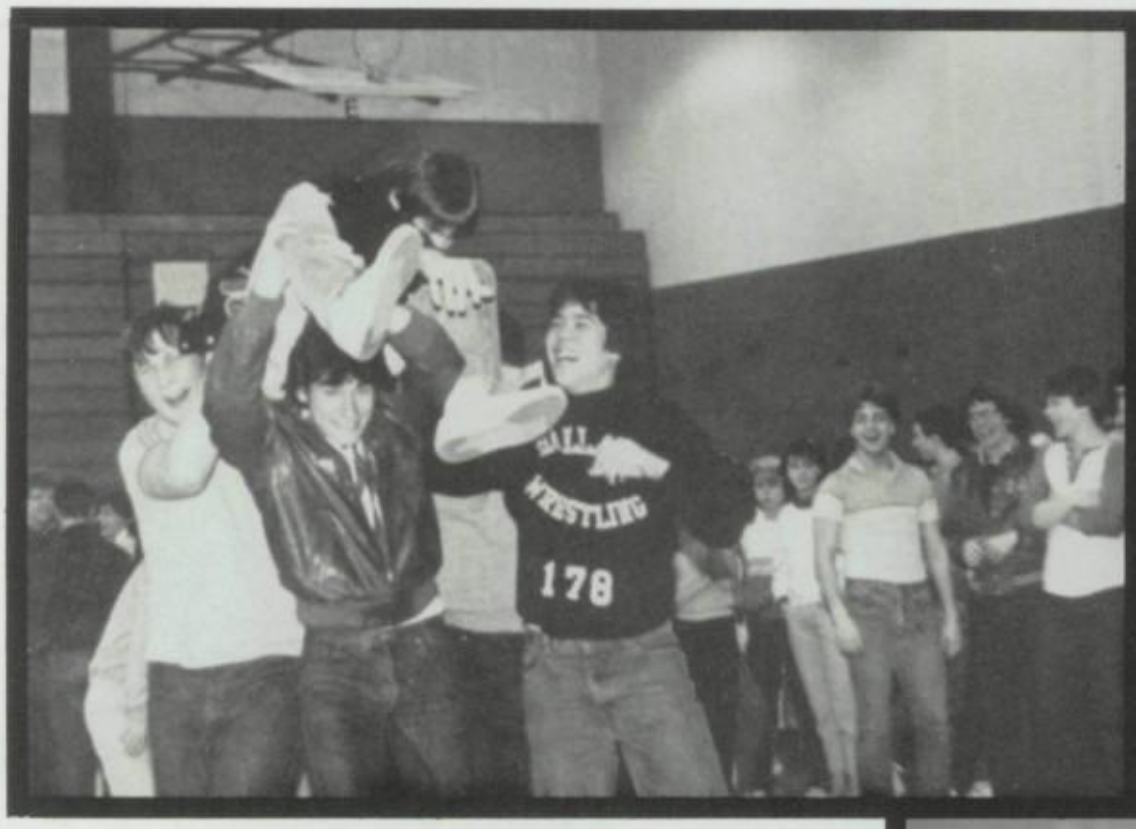
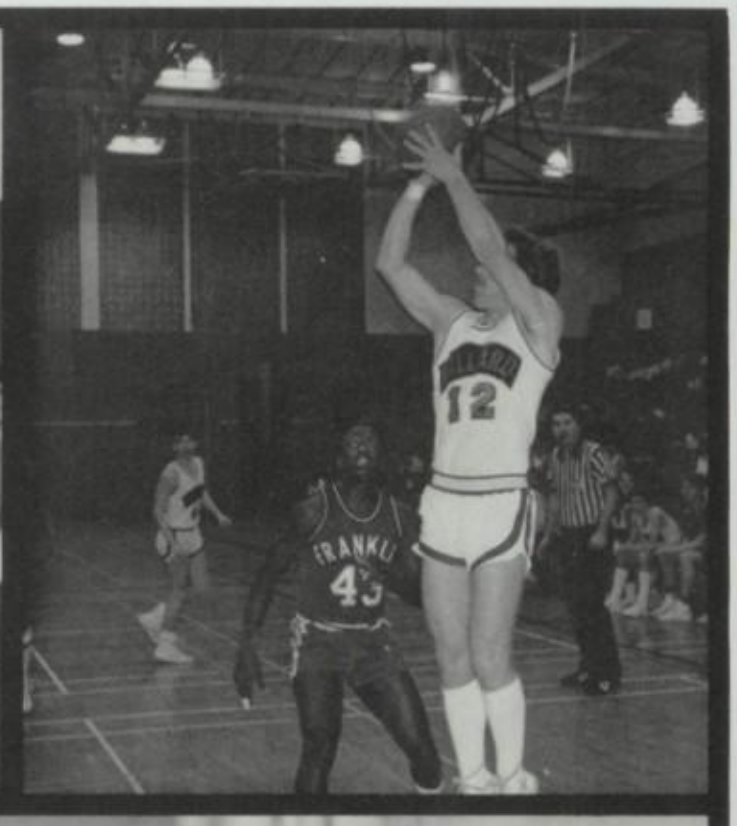
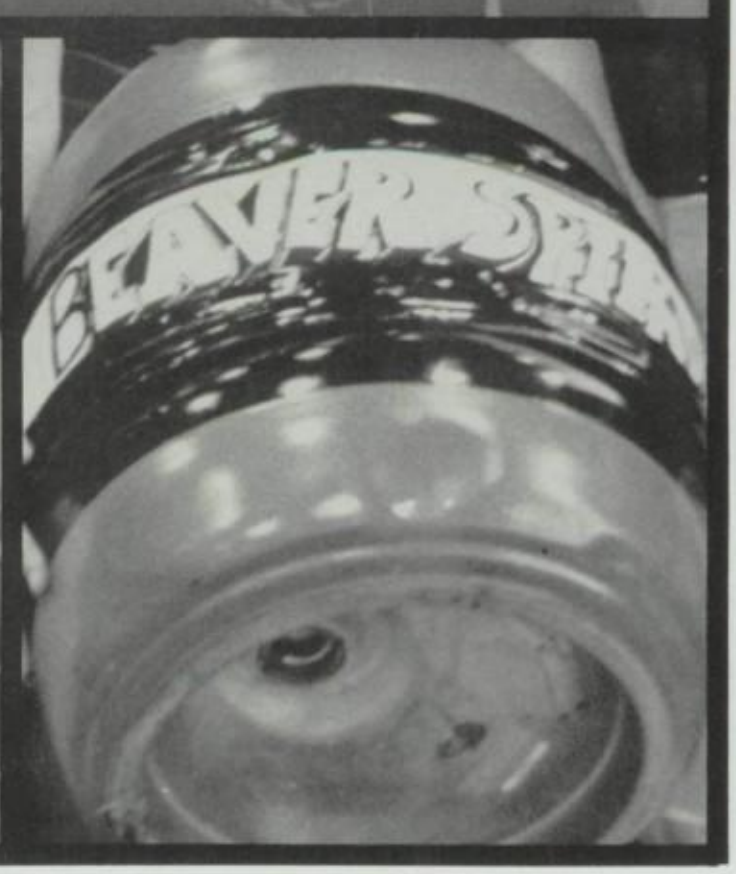
Faces In The Crowd





Homecoming

Basketball Homecoming week was full of high spirit and wild participation. Students showed their unmitigated pride in the Beavers and were very active during Homecoming week. Students, as well as faculty, dressed up in hats and sunglasses, wore togas; dressed up as well as performed like nerds on nerd day; wore spirit colors on our annual Black and Red day, and ended the week with dress up day.



Homecoming

Men's Basketball

The 1983 -'84 Men's Varsity Basketball Team was one of character, enthusiasm, and pride. It was a team lacking in front line size, but one that managed to hold its own. Play, at times, was inconsistent for the Beavers which held them from having a successful season. The play of the younger players does show a promising future for Ballard Basketball. The Coaching Staff would like to thank Seniors, Doug Tuft, Tim Dickerson, Casey McMullin, and Mike Visor for their hustle, effort, and commitment.

Men Prepare For Future

The 1983-84 J.V. Basketball team was a very young team with one junior, nine sophomores, and one freshman. Of the eleven players, seven were new to the program. Although the J.V. team did not win many games, the success of the J.V. program was not measured by its win-loss record. Many of the players will fill the ranks of the varsity team in the future.

The ten girls who contributed to the girls' J.V. basketball team worked hard to make their year, "the best", according to volunteer coach, Al (Brother) Lowe. He also said: "To have had so much talent in one place at one time, the ability to listen and to try to become better made the difference."

The nearly undefeated (one game lost) team's head coach was Ms. Mary Riley.

The 1983-'84 Cheersquad started the year off by attending cheer camp for one week where they received seven superior ribbons and one excellent ribbon for their leadership and cheering techniques.

To raise money for uniforms, pom pons, and other expences the Cheersquad held car washes, bake sales, and sold chocolate bars. The Cheerleaders kept the Ballard spirit and pride alive all year long.

The Cheersquad would like to especially thank Louise Takagi, who filled in for Mr. Andrews and organized everything so well.

Pep Squad Shows Enthusiasm

Yes, Ballard's Pep Squad really came alive in '83-'84, with a large and active membership. The squad has really shown its school spirit and dedication by supporting all the teams. They've done a super job in baking the teams cookies, making posters, and providing an enthusiastic rooting section at many of the events. It's never hard to tell who is on the Pep Squad with their bright red sweatshirts, which they wore on certain game days, to promote school spirit. Good job, and thanks for your support!

They sang their way around Seattle in the fall and at Christmas with notable appearances on the Christmas Ship, at the Seattle Center, and at several hotels. They provided songs for all the assemblies in the auditorium, and joined the other Ballard music groups for concerts at school. The Chorale began the second semester with an appearance at a Seattle Supersonics game singing the National Anthem. They ended the school year singing at the Leavenworth Mai Fest, with a lot of good songs and good times in between.

Drama Acts Up . . .

Drama class teaches people how to improve communications skills and how to cooperate with other people.

Learning how other people deal with different situations is another valuable reason for taking Drama. In the "Man in the Moon Marigolds", advanced students showed what happens when creativity is suppressed by jealousy. During the month of March the advanced class also treated the public to the comedy "The Curious Savage", by John Patric. Drinks and deserts were included in the cover charge. In May, a world premier musical called "The Body Language" about a deaf boy was planned. According to Mr. Kelly, it is done in the popular style of "Stayin Alive", and "Footloose". He also said, a tour of some of the shows for elementary students was planned for the end of the year.

Annual Staff

We, the 1983-84 Shingle Staff, have sacrificed much of our own time to work toward getting this book completed.

We attended the athletic games, tournaments, clubs and various other school activities so that we could put many of the students' and faculty's memories together.

Under the direction of our Advisor, Ms. Janiss Furry; Suzie Kramer, and Suzie Short, editors, and a class of twenty-four, we composed a 176 page book reflecting our theme of "Traveling."

Here is the 1984 Shingle.

Ballard Students Help Out

The student helpers of the main office, attendance office, lunchroom, nurse's office and administrators did all they could to support and aid the Ballard staff and students. Their assistance helped the Ballard operation run more smoothly.

Students in the Main office, helped the Secretaries and Administrators with doing errands, answering incoming calls and taking messages. Attendance office helpers were indispensable to Mrs. Mogan in helping to implement the new computer attendance program. The attendance cards of absent students were picked up by the student helpers.

Lunchroom student helpers worked hard serving our school lunches, helping out with the a la carte line and Hot Dog Wagon.

The nurses single helper performed many duties. She filed cards, recorded student treatments, and answered the telephone when the nurse was away. She also cleaned and bandaged small cuts. All these student helpers provided much support for the Staff of Ballard.

The 1984 Shingle Staff would like to give special thanks to the following people: to the Ballard Staff who gave us continual cooperation and patience; Jostens for publishing this book and their friendly representative, Milt Bean; Bruce Johnson and Margaret Kelly of Rowland's Studio; Louise Takagi for scheduling pictures and being most cooperative; Mrs. Iwami and Ms. Whitfield for their cheerful assistance and support; Mr. Ron Ames and Mrs. Stallcop; for their special project help; Robert Bune, for his help, especially in emergency situations; Billie Jo Mitchell's continual dedication; Lori Haugen, Steve Petek, and Patty Pancho for the Photographic assistance; and to the 1984 Talisman Staff for the use of their telephone, and negatives; and to all the other people, unamed, who have helped make this book possible. We couldn't have done it without them!
